1. Company Overview

NovaCart Retail Ltd. is an e-commerce and logistics company headquartered in Dhaka, Bangladesh, founded in 2019 by Rafiq Ahmed and Tanjina Karim. The company operates an online marketplace connecting local sellers with customers across Bangladesh, alongside a growing logistics arm, NovaCart Express, which handles last-mile delivery for both internal orders and third-party merchants.

As of the most recent fiscal year, NovaCart employs 412 people across four offices: Dhaka (headquarters), Chattogram (regional hub), Sylhet (fulfillment center), and a remote engineering team distributed across the country. Annual revenue for FY2025 was reported at BDT 1.86 billion, a 34% increase over FY2024.

7. Frequently Asked Questions

Q: How do I track my order?

A: Open the NovaCart app, go to 'My Orders', and select the order to view real-time tracking, including courier assignment and estimated delivery time.

Q: Can I change my delivery address after placing an order?

A: Yes, if the order has not yet been dispatched. Go to 'My Orders' > select the order > 'Edit Address'. Once marked as 'Out for Delivery', the address cannot be changed.

Q: What happens if I'm not home during delivery?

A: The courier will attempt delivery up to 2 times. After a failed second attempt, the package is held at the nearest hub for 3 days before being returned to the seller.

Q: How do I become a seller on NovaCart?

A: Visit seller.novacart.example, submit your Trade License and NID, and complete the onboarding training. Approval typically takes 3–5 business days.

Q: Does NovaCart Plus auto-renew?

A: Yes, both Monthly and Annual Plus plans auto-renew by default using the saved payment method. Auto-renewal can be disabled from Account Settings > Subscriptions.

Q: What is the NovaCart Wallet?

A: NovaCart Wallet is an in-app balance used for refunds, cashback, and promotional credits. Wallet balance can be used toward any purchase but cannot be withdrawn as cash.

Q: How is customer data protected?

A: NovaCart encrypts customer data in transit and at rest, and does not share personal data with third parties except logistics partners strictly for delivery fulfillment, as outlined in the Privacy Policy.
